THE SOUTH HURTS ITS OWN CAUSE

(From The Bloomington Pantagraph)

The South has made progress in its struggle with the race problem. Many Southern states have not had a poll tax in decades. Many have improved educational and health conditions for colored people. It is on these grounds that the Southern states protest federal action on civil rights.

Two recent incidents gave advocates of federal action new fuel. One was what the Louisville Courier-Journal called "almost automatic exoneration" of a white man accused of killing a Georgia Negro. The Courier-Journal said: "This was a familiar pattern from which there have been rare departures."

The other incident was the proposal of Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia that the state's registration laws be wiped off the books and new registration rules set up. This is an obvious move to disenfranchise the Negroes who had gained their right to vote in previous administrations.

Those widely publicized actions make the Northern people wonder just how much progress really is being made. They give a distorted picture of the situation, to be sure, but they call attention to the great need of better racial understanding the nation over.

Normal People Find It Hard To Change Their Habits

By Hal Boyle

New York.—(AP)—Once upon a time there was a serious young man named George.

Most of the students took the course because it was an easy way to get three hours' credit toward a degree. But not George. He really worried about world population.

When the professor, a genteel old bachelor, warned that the earth was getting over crowded with its 2,250,000,000 people, most of the class yawned. George sighed. He knew that every ten years there were 200,000,000 more people. He fretted because the human race was so careless. It seemed like all they wanted out of life was posterity.

One afternoon the old professor held a tea for a few favorite students he felt had learned the difference between Malthus and Malthus. George felt ill at ease at first because he was seated beside a girl named Grace.

George had nothing in particular against Grace. He just distrusted all girls. He felt that in some way they were responsible for the increase in world population—not an entirely unwarranted conclusion.

"If something isn't done to reduce the rate of population growth," he said despondently, "they'll have to hang up a 'standing room only' sign for the human race."

George began to thaw. Nobody in his life had ever told him he had said a cute thing.

George realized here at last was a girl of real intellect. So he asked to walk her home.

On the way they reached complete agreement. Grace had thought it possible for the world to support adequately a population of 750,000,000. Gently George showed her she was wrong. The right figure, he said, was 500,000,000.

COOK CROSS-CUT
Beef Shanks As Braised Meat

When a beef shank is cut cross-wise into thick juicy portions, a new cut of meat is born. Unfamiliar as this may sound, it's really just an old favorite in a new guise—pot roasts in miniature. For cross-cut beef shanks make perfect individual potroasts, and thus add new variety to your menus.

Shanks of other kinds of meat are delicious, too, though they are often sadly neglected except by those who know really good food. Lamb shanks, veal knuckles or shanks, and pork hocks provide some of the best eating there is, these people will tell you, and you don't know what you are missing in ignoring them. Usually these meats are cooked by braising, just as the beef shanks are, though occasionally they may be cooked in liquid to add further variety to your menus.

Beef shanks are a symbol, too, of all good braised meat dishes. Usually flavor and tenderness seem to accompany not only shanks but all other meats cooked by this method.

This may be due to the initial browning which seems to develop flavor, and to the long slow cooking which brings out the flavor to the fullest.

As has been mentioned, the first step in preparing the beef shanks, or any other braised meat, is to

POT-ROASTS IN MINIATURE

Braised beef shanks are pot-roasts in miniature, so you know they are worthy of a very special place on your menus. There is such a good-sized, good-tasting portion of meat on each one that your family will be more than satisfied. Serve with browned potatoes and a tomato-flavored gravy.

brown the exterior thoroughly. This is usually done in the same utensil in which the meat is to be cooked, in order to save dishes—usually a heavy frying-pan with a close-fitting cover or a Dutch oven. Use a small amount of hot fat, about 2 or 3 tablespoons, in which to brown the meat. If you like, dip the shanks in flour first to aid in the browning process. Brown the meat thoroughly so that the color will last throughout the cooking.

Now add a small amount of liquid to the pan, about 1 to 1 1/2 cup. If you need more later you can always add it. If you have a rack, the shanks may be cooked on it so that they will be sure to cook evenly. If not, perhaps you will want to turn them occasionally during the cooking time.

Now cover the pan closely and,

Mrs. Norfleet Named Chairman Of Berea Unit

Mrs. Hugh Norfleet was named to succeed Mrs. R. H. Williams as chairman of the Berea Unit of Home Bureau at a meeting held Jan. 14 with Mrs. Harold Stewart, who is the new vice chairman, succeeding Mrs. Norfleet. Mrs. Williams resigned because of ill health.

Twelve members and two guests were present at the meeting, which opened with the pledge to the flag. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. James Luster. Program suggestions were given in response to roll call.

The major lesson on "Weight Control" was presented by Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. C. C. Williamson. Mrs. Luster gave the minor lesson on "Program Planning."

Mrs. Albert Nall had charge of recreation and conducted two contests. The winners were Mrs. Norfleet and Mrs. Ward Petefish. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

New Roodhouse, Winchester Post Offices Sought

Two bills calling for $90,000 post offices at Roodhouse and Winchester were introduced Monday in Washington by Congressman Sid Simpson of Carrollton.

The authorizing legislation, which would require an appropriation be undertaken, was offered last year by Congressman Simpson but died in committee.

The Carrollton congressman said the presidential budget contained no money estimates for Illinois post offices, but these can be added if congress chooses.

Roodhouse is located in Greene county, Simpson's home county, and Winchester is county seat of Scott county.

The meeting will be preceded by a covered-dish dinner at 6:30. Hostesses for the dinner are Miss Margaret Moore, Mrs. Elbert Brasel, Mrs. Or-

Forestry To Be Topic Of Meeting In Greene County

Carrollton—About 3,500,000 acres of Illinois timberland, most of it in farm woodlots, is loafing on the job, according to University of Illinois foresters. It is growing less than half the timber it could grow with good management.

This charge applies to Greene county's acreage of woodland, Farm Adviser Bill Brown points out. At a meeting of foresters at the College of Agriculture last fall, it was pointed out how each of 32 southern Illinois counties could have $500,000 more income each year from forestry through better care of timberland and reforestation.

"Making Your Woodland Pay" is the topic for a meeting of Greene Co. farmers to be held on Thursday, January 20, at 1:30 p. m. the farm adviser says.

The meeting will be held in the woodland on the Geo. B. Barrow farm, west of Carrollton, where a demonstration plot was laid out 10 years ago. L. B. Culver, farm forestry extension specialist from the University of Illinois, will conduct the meeting. Also present to explain his program will be Paul Lamendola, farm (district) forester.

Culver will discuss improved woodland management practices. He also will review the growth of trees in the demonstration plot and discuss marketing problems and methods.

Ashland Family Escapes Double Danger Unharmd

Ashland—An Ashland family, the George Dippels, narrowly escaped serious injury in an auto accident which confronted them with double danger.

The accident occurred as the Dippel family was returning from a birthday party honoring Paul Jones. Mr. Dippel accidentally drove the car off the edge of a bridge, ripping off the exhaust pipe.

As the family continued their journey, they became drowsy. Realizing the danger of being overcome by carbon monoxide, they lowered the car windows, letting in the fresh night air, which permitted them to continue home in a safe, if somewhat chilly, fashion.

All escaped injury.

"Nonsense, Theodore! It's cozy to entertain by candlelight—besides the portions look larger!"

New York Stock Market

New York, Jan. 18.—(P)—The stock market developed a wobbly streak today after a short-lived morning advance.

Early gains were either lost or trimmed as the market slowly settled down following advances of fractions to more than a point. The result was a fairly even mixture of plus and minus signs.

Business slackened after initial buying orders were filled. Turnover was at the rate of 750,000 shares for the full session.

American Telephone moved against the downward trend and advanced more than a point at one time. A.T.&T. has been in supply for the past three sessions, largely because of a Department of Justice anti-monopoly suit.

Among the steadier spots were Studebaker, Woolworth, J. I. Case, Douglas Aircraft, Allied Chemical, Dow Chemical, Owens-Illinois and Standard Oil (N.J.).

Among the lagards were Bethlehem Steel, Caterpillar Tractor, Consolidated Natural Gas, Philip Morris, International Paper and Gulf Oil.

Corporate tending upward, including American Telephone issues on fairly substantial volume. U. S. governments held steady in over-the-counter trade.

President at 29

Probably the youngest president of a major industrial concern is Charles H. Percy, 29. He was just elected head of the Bell and Howell Company in Chicago, which does an $18,000,000 annual business manufacturing movie cameras. Percy started with the concern when he was 17, and worked his way up to the presidency.

COURT CAN'T MAKE UP HER MIND

Fyzabad, India.—(P)—A question was posed whether a court should be referred to as "he" or "she."

The Chief Justice of the Allahabad High Court, B. Malik, wanted the questioner to wait for a year or two when "with the increasing invasion of the court rooms by members of the gentler sex, it will be all she and no he."

At a dinner, Lawyer Pandit U. P. Pandey suggested it would be more appropriate to consider the court in the feminine gender since work in the court room involved presence of "suitors," "engagement" of lawyers, coming into existence of "issues" and finally the "delivery" of judgment.

WHEAT, CORN SCORE SMALL GAINS BUT OTHER GRAINS LOWER

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(P)—Wheat and corn scored minor gains at the Board of Trade today, but other futures ranged lower.

Some buying in wheat was attributed to milling interests against sales of flour in undisclosed amounts to the United Kingdom.

Corn borrowed some of its strength from wheat. To arrive bookings were placed at 90,000 bushels. Some traders thought the decline in visible supply of corn last week, and bad weather combined to support buying.

Lard and soybeans had difficulty in maintaining rallies, and oats failed to rally with other grains.

Receipts were: wheat 15 cars, corn 167, oats 14 and soybeans 1.

At the finish wheat was 1 to 1 higher than the previous close, May $2.42-1. Corn was 1/2 lower to 1 higher, May $1.45-45. Oats were 1/2 lower, May 72 1/2. Rye was 1/2 lower, May $1.64. Soybeans were 1 cent to 2 1/2 lower, March $2.42-42. Lard was 28 to 42 cents a hundredweight lower, January $14.20.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth. Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil. NO harmful drugs. NO dose — is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments — highly recommended by the medical profession.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hippocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Amazing Results
MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down — it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of their doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals
YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderful springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thionin in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young. GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best WARGA'S DRUGS

Sodium Fluoride Treatments Will Begin This Week

Dr. F. E. McCord, Morgan county health officer, announced Tuesday that a team from the United States public health service will begin application of the sodium fluoride treatment for the prevention of dental decay, at the Meredosia high school building either Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Sodium fluoride treatments will be available for all grade school children of the consolidated grade school district in the northwest section of the county. Written consent of the parents is necessary before children will be given the application by health service experts.

The team consists of two dentists, two hygienists and one clerk. The visiting dentists and technicians will be assisted as much as necessary by employees of the county health department.

Dr. McCord said that the dental team will come to Jacksonville this spring to carry on activities among grade school children. Headquarters will be established at the school dental clinic near the David Prince junior high school on Jordan street.

Aristotle Ethics Discussed During Seminar Program

Dr. Malcolm Stewart was guest leader of the Great Books seminar at the public library Monday evening, when Aristotle's Ethics, Book I, was the basis for discussion.

"Aristotle formulated the basic principles of deductive logic and saw clearly all the implications," Dr. Stewart said in his introductory remarks. "His writings were never meant for publication—they were in all probability, class notes."

The discussion was concerned chiefly with moral conduct, which is motivated by greatest good for all men, and with the deductive processes by which men learn to choose between right and wrong conduct.

Aristotle's Politics, Book I, is the basic reading for the next meeting Monday, Feb. 7, when Dr. Stewart will again conduct the seminar.

The Babylonians had an adequate banking system as early as 2000 B. C., according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

More of What Goes Up Comes Down—Safely

While the total number of passengers carried by United States domestic scheduled airlines continues to rise, the number of fatalities dropped in 1948. The estimated 1948 fatality figures is 1.3 per 100,000,000 passenger miles. A "passenger mile" means flying one passenger one mile. Real passenger fatalities (solid line) on left scale, and passengers carried (broken line) on right scale. Figures are from the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

IRON PENNIES ARE IN THE RAILS
Pueblo, Colo.—(AP)—Those confusing gray-colored pennies have an after-life when you finish with them.

After being retired to the Denver mint, the zinc-coated one-cent pieces are mashed to make them unusable, and then sent here for use in steel making.

The Colorado Fuel and Iron Corporation melts them with other scrap metal and they are used in steel rails, structural steel, fence wire, nails and spikes.

It will take about half an hour over low heat for diced cooked potatoes, in a few tablespoons of fat in a skillet, to acquire a crust.

The Australian dingy dog, a wild animal, is probably the closest link between dog and wolf or fox. But in the entire world, says the 1946 Book of Knowledge Annual, there are no other wild dogs from which the dingy could have sprung.

They have completely disappeared from the earth.

Damage from rust, rot and neglect during winter is often more costly than the wear and tear of actual use. Here are some tips that cut down repair bills.

1. If possible, house idle machinery in a good shed.
2. Clean out all dirt and trash.
3. Tighten loose bolts, check for cracked or broken parts.
4. Apply rust preventive to unpainted surfaces.
5. Remove belts and canvas—store in a dry place away from rats, mice and birds.

St. Louis University Takes Top Basketball Honors In AP Poll

New York, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The mid-west dominated the Associated Press basketball poll with five teams from that sector named among the top 10 college quints for the week. No. 1 honors went to St. Louis University which has racked up 11 victories without a defeat.

The Billikins beat out Kentucky for top honors, receiving 69 first place calls to only 16 for the South-eastern Conference champions. A total of 93 writers named the Billikins on all ballots to give the Missouri a winning 904 points. Kentucky, beaten only by St. Louis, 42-40, in 12 games, gained second place with 842 points. Each team was named no lower than fourth.

Western Kentucky's Hilltoppers, placed third with 645 points. The tall and talented Hilltoppers, undefeated in 12 starts through games of Monday, Jan. 17, received only two firsts but bagged 43 thirds and a goodly number of fourths and fifths to edge out unbeaten Minnesota for third.

Midwest aggregations to make the top 10 in addition to St. Louis and Minnesota were Oklahoma A. & M., Illinois and Hamline of Minnesota.

The Gophers, who whipped Iowa last night, 61-45, for their 12th in a row and fourth in Big Nine conference play, collected three first place votes and 480 points. The Aggies, only other team to receive first place mention, being named the best by the scribes, were fifth with 288. The Missouri Valley eagles have won nine and lost two this season.

Illinois (13-1) placed seventh, just behind San Francisco's Dons, whose 14-1 record earned them sixth place. Hamline (11-0), winner of the Denver and Los Angeles tournaments, was eighth. Villanova (11-0), was ninth. Utah (11-2) rounded out the top 10.

St. Louis, Western Kentucky, Minnesota, Hamline and Villanova were unbeaten through Monday's games.

Following is the way the teams finished, with the tabulation based on 10 points for a first place vote, nine for second and so down the line ending with one for tenth (first place votes in parentheses):

1. St. Louis (69).....	904
2. Kentucky (22).....	842
3. Western Kentucky (22).....	645
4. Minnesota (3).....	420
5. Oklahoma A. & M. (3).....	438

Waverly Edges Chapin, Hosts Trip Kilbourne In Ashland Tourney

Franklin vs. Chandlerville, 7:30 p.m.

By John Campbell

Coach Howard Berline's White Hall Maroons staged a last quarter rally to gain a 40-40 tie, only to lose out in the closing minutes to the scrappy team of Roodhouse Roadhouse 47-43. Roodhouse is in second place in the Ivy standings with four wins and one loss.

Coach Cecil McVey's Virginia club is greatly improved. The powerful Cathedral of Springfield team won over the Cass County lads only three points Friday night. Tuesday the strong Pana team, winners of fourth place at the Centralia holiday tourney finished three points behind the Cathedral five at Springfield.

Pawnee's Indians grabbed another win for their 11th this season at Ashland. The Indians have dropped only three games this season for a fine record. The Winchester Wildcats are winners of 11 straight games to date and lost only to Rushville's Rockets.

Ivy top scoring honors for Friday night games goes to the following cagers: Hankins, Winchester, 22; Boe, Carrollton 21; Milnes, White Hall 18; Ballard, Roodhouse 14; Benner, Roodhouse 14; Mitchell, Greenfield 14; Reynolds, Jerseyville 12; Gustine, Greenfield 11 and Davis, Jerseyville 11.

Coach Bob Kraushaar of the Jacksonville Crimsons announced his 1949 foot ball schedule for the Jacksonville eleven as follows: Sept. 16—Pittsfield here; Sept. 23—At Winchester; Sept. 30—At Quincy; Oct. 7—Beardstown here; Oct. 14—At Rushville; Oct. 21—Feltschans here; Oct. 28—Clinton here; Nov. 4—Havana here; Nov. 11—Open date (wants game to be played away).

Coach Howard Lester of Winchester high will take his team to the Aurora "March of Dimes" benefit double header attraction at West High for the second consecutive season. Last year his Batavia club lost to Arenzville by one point at the Aurora meet.

Coach Clarence "Buzzy" Bradley's Carrollton Hawks failed to score a single point in the second quarter of their Friday night game with the fine Winchester team of Coach Howard Lester, former Batavia mentor. Reggie Hankins again led the Scott county team with 22 points for his evening's efforts.

Plenty of prep basketball is in store for fans this week at the Winchester gym with Winchester with the popular Invitational tourney in full swing. My predictions for the games in this meet during the remainder of the week are Rushville over Mt. Sterling; Griggsville over Jerseyville; Winchester over Hardin; Roodhouse over Carrollton; Rushville over Griggsville; Winchester over Roodhouse; Griggsville over Roodhouse for third place and Rushville over Winchester for first place with this game being decided in the closing minutes as was the case in their meeting earlier this season at Winchester.

Winchester tourney officials for Wednesday night are Dan Robbins and Max Miller, both of Macomb; for Thursday night games are Harry Fitzhugh, of Franklin and Ted Search of Chester; Friday night officials are Max Miller of Macomb and Ted Search of Chester and the Saturday night officials are Ted Search and Clyde McQueen of Springfield.

Coach Glen Smith's Pittsfield Saukees beat a fine Peoria Woodruff club Saturday night at Pittsfield 49-45. Pittsfield trailed at the third quarter 36-34 but the Saukees went on to win over the Peoria five that lost to Flora 63-62 in the Paris Holiday tourney. Paris won over Flora 48-35 for third place in that meet.

Five top scorers in the Ivy loop cage race are Hankins of Winchester, 111; Stuart of Winchester 78; Reynolds of Jerseyville 75; Milnes of White Hall 72; and O'Donnell of Winchester 69. Winchester high has the Rockets leading the Ivy loop with five top scorers in the first five conference games.

AAC Opens 3-Day Meet; New Rumors Of Pro Grid Peace

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Mum was the word on pro football peace maneuvers today as the All-American Conference opened a three-day meeting with a secret huddle.

Officials of both the AAC and the National Football League, which begins its annual winter parley tomorrow night, refuse to admit that new peace tactics are in the air. But they would not be surprised — in fact, probably disappointed — if there weren't a knock on the door during the week and talks resumed.

They all would like to see a halt in the crippling pro football war which has cost the 18 clubs of both circuits approximately $8,000,000 in three years. But there is a stalemate stubbornness on both sides.

NFL Wants to Dictate
The 29-year-old NFL believes it should dictate terms. The AAC feels this is absurd since there is no idea of surrender in effect.

Whether a compromise can be reached is questionable. There appears to be many individual differences to contend with.

Several new rumors were in the wind today.

1. In the event of another stalemate, the AAC will continue as a six club circuit with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Rockets out. (The Dodgers losses reportedly have run as high as $300,000. The Rockets needed $100,000 from the league at beginning of last season's disastrous campaign.)

There is some talk of the Rockets' franchise being shifted to Dallas.

Two-League Setup
The AAC will keep its identity in a two-league setup of six teams each. The NFL would consist of Chicago Bears, New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers, Los Angeles Rams, Detroit Lions, and Washington Redskins. The AAC membership would be the Chicago Cardinals, New York Yanks, Philadelphia Eagles, Cleveland Browns, San Francisco 49ers and the Green Bay Packers.

3. A pro football czar be named (probably Bert Bell, now NFL commissioner) to run both leagues. In cases of player draft conflicts, he would put a ceiling on players' salary then let the player choose his club on its merits.

If the price of peace is deemed too high as it was in the last olive branch session in Philadelphia, it is likely the AAC will draw up a 1949 schedule sprinkled with midweek games.

GETS PRISON TERM
St. Louis, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Milton Lee Cobb, who shot and seriously wounded his wife last July with a shotgun concealed in a gift-wrapped box while she worked behind a downtown drug store cosmetics counter, was sentenced yesterday to two years in prison. He pleaded guilty to assault with intent to kill.

Find Salesman Not Involved In Murder
St. Louis, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The circuit attorney's office has dismissed an indictment charging Lee Deering with being an accessory after the fact in the fatal shooting of Donald Tierney, former high school athlete, in the Kitty Kat night club last Sept. 5.

Assistant circuit attorney Edward Down said a "thorough" investigation by his office showed Deering, a salesman, was not involved in the shooting. Deering, he said, will be a state's witness against Frank Hickley, the club's bartender, who was indicted for first-degree murder in Tierney's death.

Leahey Steps Down As Athletic Director; Will Still Be Coach
Norfolk, Va., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Frank Leahey said today he would step down from becoming head coach of the Redskins but would retain his position as head coach of the Irish.

Leahey said his assistant, Ed (Moose) Krause, probably would succeed him as athletic director.

At the same time, Leahey said reports that he was considering accepting an offer to coach a professional football team were "absolutely false."

"I am very happy at Notre Dame and I contemplate making no change," he said.

It had been reported that Leahey would confer with officials of the Washington Redskins of the National football league tomorrow relative to becoming head coach of the Redskins.

Leahey, here to attend a banquet of the Norfolk Sports club, said he was going to Washington tonight after the banquet to see "a friend who is a stockholder in the Redskins but who also has a business of his own" and is not a Redskins "official."

He said he had scheduled no conferences with Redskins officials and that the visit to Washington "had no bearing on the matter."

Queried by local newsmen relative to his relinquishing the athletic directorship at South Bond, Leahey said "yes. I expect that development will take place sometime during the year."

Winchester Routs White Hall
The host club, Winchester, routed the White Hall Maroons by a 76 to 33 count to open hostilities yesterday afternoon. The Wildcats, seeded to the number-two spot in tourney pairing, swept to the win with a minimum of effort. Reggie Hankins, lanky Winchester pivot man, garnered 25 points to lead his team to victory, and to top scorers in all of yesterday's frays. Milnes netted 9 counters for the Maroon aggregation.

Hardin Tops Pleasant Hill
Hardin eliminated Pleasant Hill from further tourney competition in the second afternoon melee, when they dropped the P. H. squad 48 to 34. Hardin started the contest strong, and built up an impressive first-quarter lead. However, the Pleasant Hill crew remained undaunted and came back in the second quarter to come within one basket of knotting the count at the intermission. The favorites walked away from the underdog after the halftime break to take the win going away.

Mt. Sterling Beats Milton
After the Rushville-Notre Dame thriller in the initial evening contest, Mt. Sterling wound up first round bouts in this year's match by snatching a 61 to 51 margin from the Milton five in a second quarter scoring drive. Milton took the initiative to open the battle, but Mt. Sterling regained their composure and tied the count at 18-all at halftime. They continued to set the pace in the second half and drove on to win the right to play in the quarter finals Thursday night.

XXVIII
THEY reached Cielito Lindo just at dusk. Merry stood for a moment beside the car, savoring the mildness of the weather, the glory of the green lawns and shrubbery, the budding azaleas and the mounds of feathery yellow Forsythia, already in full bloom. Back in New York, it had been cold and snow had still covered the park and such side streets as were not important enough to be kept open by snow plows. Here it was the very heart of spring.
Carter Bagby came out of the house and greeted her courteously, but with a hint of reproach in his manner, and more than a hint in his words. "Well, Merry, for your mother's sake, I'm mighty glad you could tear yourself away from all your fun and good times. I'm afraid she has missed you badly." Merry felt the usual twinge of dislike that she had always experienced in his presence but made herself say quietly, "I'm sorry. I've missed her, too. I'll go right in to her. Where is she?"
"Lying down in her room," said Carter, and while his tone was mild it was completely lacking in any warmth.
"I just don't like the man—he doesn't mean to be offensive," she tried to tell herself as she ran into the house and to the door of her mother's room.
Susan was lying on the chaise longue in a dainty, too youthful negligee, a handkerchief dampened with lilac cologne on her forehead. It was an atmosphere to which Merry had become unhappily accustomed in the months immediately preceding the break-up.
"Who is it?" asked Susan fretfully. And then Merry was beside her, kneeling, her arms about Susan, holding her close. There was an exchange of murmured endearments and greetings, and then Susan raised herself on the chaise longue and pushed Merry away from her and said eagerly, "Let me look at you, darling. Why, you're thinner and your lovely tan is gone."
Merry laughed and stood up, turning swiftly before her mother, deliberately making her voice gay and vivacious.
"Darling, of course my tan is gone. New York blizzards aren't supposed to give one a nice tan. And I'm not thin—I've just maybe grown a little taller."
Susan was sitting up now, peering at Merry, taking in the beautifully tailored beige suit, the brown alligator pumps, the matching brown hat, the suede gloves and bag. The milk coat Merry had dropped on a chair.
"My dear! That suit is much too old for you! And a milk coat—most unsuitable! Your father must be making a fortune." There was a thin, unpleasant edge to Susan's voice.
"The coat, angel, was a gift from Lissa."
"Oh, indeed? And did she think we were so poverty stricken that we were objects of charity, to be taken out and outfitted like slum children? Or is it that her conscience is bothering her for breaking up a home?" Susan's voice was shaking and ugly splashes of color stained her thin cheeks.
Merry was startled at the sight of so much animosity.
"Mother dear, Lissa's not like that at all! Why, she's a grand person."
"She must be, to have taken you from your mother for so long!" Merry stared at her, shocked.
"But, Mother, that's very unfair!" she burst out without thinking. "Surely you want Dad to be happy, as you and Carter are!"
Susan set her thin lips in a stubborn line and Merry heard herself saying something she had never dreamed of saying to her mother: "You are happy, aren't you, Mother?"
Susan's eyes flashed.
"Of course I'm happy. Why wouldn't I be, with a husband who is devoted to me and who thinks of nothing except my wishes? It's only that I resent this creature stealing my husband and now trying to take my daughter!"
"MUM, dear," Merry spoke in the gentle tone one would use to an unreasonable child. "You've got it all wrong. I like Lissa, and she was grand to me, and she and Dad seem to be perfectly happy."
Susan flung off the pastel-colored Afghan which was across her feet and swung herself up.
"I don't care to discuss that creature with you, or anyone else, Merry." Susan's tone was cold and cutting. "It's time to get dressed for dinner. You'll want to change, of course. Carter and I always dress for dinner nowadays."
Merry almost said, "So do Dad and Lissa," but caught the childish spitefulness back and bent instead to kiss her mother's cheek before she went, subdued, to her own room.
The room was in exquisite order, and there was a low crystal bowl on her dressing table filled with fragrant stocks, creamy white, soft blue and rosy pink. Merry bent her head and sniffed appreciatively of the cool, frail fragrance and then straightened. Susan had remembered that stocks were Merry's favorite spring blossoms and had probably brought the best the garden afforded to welcome her home.
Andrew had put down her baggage but she didn't take time to unpack. Instead she showered and changed to one of the simple frocks she had left behind when she had flown to New York, a golden yellow pique that was vastly becoming and very girlish-looking. And after she brushed out the shining, burnished mane of her curls, she left her hair loose to frame her face and merely tied a ribbon through it to hold it in place.
She grinned wryly at her reflection in the mirror.
"You look young and childish enough now, heaven knows," she told herself, and went out to join her mother and Carter in the living room.
